Clauses (a), (b), (c) and (f).

The information is not available in the office. It has to be obtained from the Collector. But it is for consideration whether the Collector should be asked to furnish the information, the collection of which will undoubtedly involve much labour. Perhaps the ell. a. b may be informed that "the Govt have no information".

Clause (g)

of the ~~suggested~~ above 2nd para is accepted the dd. L. b may be told that the Govt do not propose to call for a report

b clauses (c) and (d)

No regular peons or clerks have been sanctioned for these courts. Apparently the dd. L. b refers to Asst Ramans who attend to the clerical work in these courts These clauses therefore relate to the Revenue dept. That dept may be requested to furnish remarks ~~answers~~ on these clauses.

The file may now be sent to Revenue. On its return from that dept a consolidated draft answer will be put up.

Please see the question in the CF. and the Law Deptt: note above.

Clauses (c) and (d)

No regular clerks ~~and~~ or peons are sanctioned for these Courts.

In G.O. No 1636 Rev. dy 5.9.22 the Govt: have laid down that in Courts where the file averaged 900 cases per annum and where the Collector considered that relief was called for, an assistant Karnam might be appointed; and that in other cases, the work of the Court should be attended to by the village establishment without additional hands.

There is no information as to the number of Courts ~~are~~ for which assistant Karnams have been sanctioned.

With these remarks the file may be returned to Law & Edn Depts. no.

A.—(a) to (f) The Government have no information.

(g) The Government do not consider it necessary to call for a report.

Mr. K. R. KARANT:—"May I ask why the Government do not consider it necessary to call for a report for furnishing information regarding the necessity for a clerk, peon and some furniture, etc.?"

The hon. Diwan Bahadur M. KRISHNAN NAYAR:—"Because, the benefit that is likely to be derived from this enquiry is not proportionate to the amount of trouble involved in the enquiry."
